Statement of Ownership, Management, and Circulation

TECHNICAL COMMUNICATION (ISSN 0049-3155) is published four times a year (quarterly) by the Society for Technical Communication, a nonprofit educational organization, as a service to the membership. Of the $150 charged for annual dues for classic membership, $15 is allocated for a subscription to TECHNICAL COMMUNICATION. Non-members pay $90 per year for a subscription.

The mailing address of both the publication and the publisher is 901 N. Stuart Street, Suite 904, Arlington, VA 22203-1822. The publisher is Susan Burton; the editor is George F. Hayhoe. The owner of the publication is the Society for Technical Communication.

There were 12,150 copies of TECHNICAL COMMUNICATION published in the third quarter of 2006. The average number of copies of each issue published during the preceding 12 months was 13,599. There were 11,670 paid/requested outside-county mail subscriptions to TECHNICAL COMMUNICATION in the third quarter, and an average of 12,451 in the preceding 12 months. Total distribution for the third quarter was 11,670. The average for the preceding 12 months was12,451. Fifty free copies of TECHNICAL COMMUNICATION were distributed by mail in the third quarter of 2006, and the average number of free copies distributed during the preceding 12 months was 50. Fifty copies of TECHNICAL COMMUNICATION were not distributed in the third quarter of 2006 (office use, leftovers), and the average number of copies not distributed during the preceding 12 months (office use, leftovers) was 50. The percent paid/requested circulation in the third quarter of 2006, as well as the average paid/requested circulation in the preceding 12 months, was 100 percent.
